

We understand that Charley Hart passed through Cooperstown Monday en route to Jessie and that he had his bride with him. If that is so, Charley, here's our hearty congratulations and may you both live long and be happy.