

HYMENEAL.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Crane at high noon, Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1900, when Mr. John R. Parsons, of Willow City, N. D., was united in marriage to Miss Alice M. Fitch, Rev. V. H. Ruring, of the Congregational church, performing the ceremony. Only four or five intimate friends in addition to the family, were present. The wedding party sat down to a very tastily prepared wedding breakfast immediately following the nuptial vows. Miss Fitch is the sister of Mrs. Maynard Crane, and is too well known for the Courier to introduce to its readers. She has been a resident of Cooperstown for many years and is a lady very much liked and respected for her many womanly qualities. Her friends in Cooperstown are many and each and every one wish her many happy years of wedded life. Mr. Parsons is engaged extensively in farming near Willow City, N. D., and he and his bride left on the afternoon train Wednesday for that place. Later in the winter Mr. and Mrs. Parsons will take a trip to Washington, D. C.
