

Gus Evers met with a very unfortunate accident last Sunday. He jumped onto a pony with the intention of taking a ride. The pony objected and threw Gus violently to the ground breaking his right shoulder and otherwise giving him a hard shaking up. Dr. Kerr attended to the fracture, but it will be quite a long time before Gus will be able to pitch hay again.