
Thought He was Christ.

Last Sunday afternoon, Sheriff Hogan and County Judge I. W. Warray, of Steele county, arrived in town with an insane person, Jens Holmen, who has an idea that he is the Savior. Holmen was out fishing Tuesday of last week in company with others. All at once he dropped his fishing apparatus and commenced to run around waving his arms and shouting that he had had a talk with God and that he himself was Jesus Christ. He was immediately taken care of and kept growing worse until last Saturday when he was adjudged insane and the above mentioned officials took him to Jamestown Monday morning. The unfortunate man is a prosperous farmer living north of Sherbrooke. He has a half section of land and is married, having eight children, the oldest being about nineteen. The Courier hope that the unfortunate man will soon have his reason restored.
