

Mr. Jens Perons was stricken down with an attack of paralysis in Crane & Johnson's lumber yard last Thursday afternoon. He was taken into the office and medical aid summoned, Doctors Tymms and Bergstrom waiting on him. His condition was very serious that night but was some better Friday and the prospects for his recovery were much better.