

A new booth for use in the long distance telephone office has been received by Manager Goff of the local exchange. It is a fine piece of furniture with double walls, etc., and you can now talk to your best girl in Fargo without everybody knowing what you say.