

The long distance telephone poles have been set up along Burrell avenue on the south side. With poles on both side of the street it looks as if we were being fenced in. If we ever get an electric light plant the poles will have to take the middle of the street.