

The long distance telephone people completed stringing the wires to Cooperstown last Friday morning and the crew left for Dazey in the afternoon. The instrument and booth had not arrived and when they get here we shall be in direct communication with the outside world.