

Herbert Weeks, who has been assistant cashier of the First Bank of Cooperstown for the past few years, severed his connection with that institution last Saturday, and on Wednesday left for his home at West Groton, N. Y. Mr. Weeks has made many friends by his courteous treatment during his connection with the bank, who are indeed sorry to see him leave. We hope that his lines will be cast in pleasant places.