

As we go to press we learn that Mrs. Joel Baum passed to the spirit world yesterday evening at about eight o'clock. Her death, which was entirely unexpected, was due to some heart affection, superinduced by injuries received in a runaway some weeks ago. It came as a severe shock to the community. Mrs. Baum was of a pleasant disposition and generally loved. She leaves a husband and three year old son to mourn her loss. —Wimbledon News.