

Death of Mrs. Martin. ✓

The Courier is again called upon to chronicle the death of another old and respected citizen of Cooperstown, this time the grim destroyer having entered into the home of W. H. Martin and removed therefrom his beloved wite. Mrs. Martin was taken very sick last Saturday with cholera morbus and died in less than twenty-four hours. She has been ailing for some time with a complication of disorders which also hastened her death. Deceased was born May 27, 1830 and died April 16, 1899, and was therefore 69 years old. Her native place was Guernsey county, Ohio. She had ten children, seven of which are living, four being residents of Cooperstown and Griggs county. She and her husband have made this place their home for about ten years. She was baptized 40 years ago and has enjoyed a strictly religious life up to the time of her death. She leaves a good name behind her for wherever she has lived her great desire and work has been help the sick and needy. The funeral ceremony was held at the Baptist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. John Smithers assisted by Rev. Burns conducted the funeral service. The remains were afterwards laid to rest in the Cooperstown cemetery. Mr. Martin and family have the sympathy of the entire community in this hour of trial and affliction.
