

Word was received from Theo. Marquardt, of Sheyenne, Sunday afternoon announcing the death of Oscar Opheim who died that afternoon from an attack of pneumonia and brain fever. Nels Opheim went to Sheyenne to look after him and brought back the remains for interment at Cooperstown Monday afternoon. The deceased has a host of friends in Griggs County who regret to hear of his sudden demise. Deceased was married at Sheyenne about two months ago.