

Death of Belle Rice.

R. C. Cooper received a telegram from Geo. C. Barnard from Denver, Col., Tuesday afternoon, conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Miss Belle Rice, daughter of Mrs. G. W. Barnard, which occurred at 12:30 Tuesday, from consumption. The deceased was 29 years old, several years of her life being spent at Cooperstown, where her gentle and lovable disposition won for her many warm friends who deeply regret to hear of her death. Always pleasant and cheerful, her sunny smile and bright face will be missed in the family circle. The Courier joins a host of Cooperstown and Griggs friends in extending sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Barnard and family in this hour of deep sorrow.

---