

Word was brought to town Tuesday that James Saunders, of Gallatin had committed suicide by shooting himself through the forehead with a revolver. He was staying at the Myers farm across the river and did not go into breakfast with the rest of the men and that fact caused the others to go out and look for him. He was found dead in the granary. He was 26 years old and was an upright young man, considered one of the best young men in the county. No cause is given for his rash act. We understand that the remains were taken to Hope for burial yesterday. Jim was well acquainted in town having worked for W. D. Marsh in the elevator. He made many friends while here.
