

Sentinel-Courier: Oscar Greenland, of Binford, who recently became the father of twin daughters, was a Cooperstown visitor last Saturday. He was looking "bigger and better" than ever and reported that the twins were "doing fine," and so was the good mother.