

Mrs. Andrew Fortney went down to Rogers Sunday evening, July 26, to take the train for Bricelyn, Minn., in response to a telegram stating that her brother, Nels N. Bringe, was ill. She was delayed and did not reach Bricelyn until Tuesday morning and her brother died Monday morning at one o'clock. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon.

---