

Mrs Maynard Crane was operated upon in a Jacksonville hospital for a deceased gall bladder, and did not recover fully from the shock and she passed away. Her death comes as a great shock to her husband and daughter and family and to her many friends. Mrs. Crane was a most devoted and loyal wife and mother and friend. She leaves to mourn her passing her husband and a daughter. Mrs. Kathleen LaDieux, of New York City, and brothers and sister. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.