

David Kalland died at St. Luke's hospital at Fargo on Friday, Aug. 7, after a brief illness of only a few days with throat and lung trouble. He was taken to Karnak Monday, and Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the house and from Union church the funeral services were held and interment made in Union cemetery. Mr. Kalland was one of the early pioneers of this county and has lived on his homestead southeast of town for the last thirty years, and was a thrifty, industrious and respected citizen of the community. He was sixty-five years old, and is survived by his wife; four children, three girls and one boy; a sister, Mrs. John Kalvik; and three brothers, Hans, John and Johannes Haugen. Besides these there are other numerous relatives and friends to mourn the loss of a true friend and sturdy citizen.

---