

Jorgen Ouren died last week at a hospital at Valley City. He had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for some time and had taken treatments at various places but without any beneficial results. He had no near relatives in this country, and during his last illness was looked after by friends.

---