

Christian Peterson, an old man residing at the home of his son Chas. Peterson, died last Saturday evening at the home near Walum after long suffering from consumption. He leaves a son residing near Walum, a son engaged in business at Jamestown, and a daughter, Mrs. Schultz. He is also survived by his wife. Rev. McLennan was present and conducted services at the house after which the remains were shipped to Jamestown for burial.

---