

they received word at Minneapolis of his death and turned back. The remains were taken to Kenyon for interment. Olaf's last words were: "I have Jesus to back me."