

Martin H. Skramstad died at his home eight miles northeast of Cooperstown, Friday evening. He had been failing for several months before the end came. Mr. Skramstad was one of the best known of the old pioneers of Griggs county. He is survived by his wife and several grownup sons and daughters.