
DIED

Ole Stokka died last Wednesday at his home in Sverdrup. He had been ailing for some months.

Mr. Stokka was born in Hoiland, Jaderen, Norway, about sixty-five years ago. In 1881 he came to Griggs county and settled on a homestead in Sverdrup township, where he has since resided. He built up a model farm home. He was an unusually intelligent and able man and was given many positions of trust and honor by his fellow townsmen. Ole Stokka will be missed in both the church and the civil affairs of the community.

Deceased leaves a widow and six sons, Jacob, Hans, Olav, Bernhardt, Arnt and Martin.

The funeral was held Friday, the Revs. Josephson and Haugland officiating. The remains were laid to rest in Westley church cemetery.
