

A wedding of interest to Hannaford people and to others throughout the state who are acquainted with his work as a violinist, is that of Clair L. Coddling and Miss True Spangenberg which took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Fritch of Valley City, Sept. 2. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Louis Spangenberg of Glen Ullin, an uncle of the bride. The only attendant was Harry Coddling, a brother of the groom. The bride's dress was a sheer crepe voile over white silk. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony, and Mr. Coddling and his bride left by auto for Spiritwood Lake for the
