

WEDDING BELLS

The following clipping from a Canadian newspaper has been handed THE ENTERPRISE for publication:

The Point Grey Gazette, British Columbia: A very pretty wedding was held at the home of Mr. Charles Cornish, Cornish avenue, on Wednesday, Sept. 3, when Miss Laura Gommerud and Mr. Ernest Royal Cornish were married by the Rev. J. H. White. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white silk, with veil and orange blossoms, carrying a bouquet of white roses and ferns, was led in by the groom's father, and the groom was supported by his brother Charles. Miss Ethel Tait and Miss Myrtle Scratchley, who acted as bridesmaids, were prettily gowned in pink silk and carried pink roses and ferns. Mr. Dibben played the wedding march. The house was beautifully decorated with ivy, ferns and cut flowers and the service was performed under a large bell composed of asters and white roses. There were present a large number of invited guests, who spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Jolly Outing Club from Vancouver composed of friends of the family out from Cornwall, England, contributed some excellent music. The happy couple left by motor for a short honeymoon, after which they will return to Eburne to live. The presents were numerous and valuable, particularly a set of silverware from the bride's father, who lives in Norway, and a deed to a building lot from the father of the groom.
