

JOHNSON

LALANDER

Pretty Wedding Solemnized at Home of Louis Johnson Last Wednesday

On Wednesday, June 24th, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mathilda to Mr. Axel Johnson of Minneapolis.

Six little boys and six little girls, relatives of the bride and groom, held the ribbons which formed the aisle for the bridal procession. To the strains of Mendelssohn's "Lohengrin," rendered by Miss Cora Berg, came the groom followed by his attendant Mr. Norman of Minneapolis. The maid of honor, Miss Christine Johnson, a sister of the bride, came next followed by Miss Hilma Gjestvang, as bridesmaid, and Miss Mabel Johnson of Minneapolis, as flower girl, and lastly the bride leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Nicholas Johnson, of Aneta. The bride and groom met out on the lawn under a bower of wild roses where the ceremony took place. Rev. Josephson of Cooperstown officiated in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. During the ceremony Miss Cora Berg sang "O, Promise Me."

The bride was very charming in a gown of white marquisette over white messaline, trimmed in pearls. Her full net veil was made in a crown-effect held by two strands of pearls and smilax. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses with a shower bouquet of lillies-of-the-valley and myrtle. The maid of honor, very pretty in a gown of white batiste over yellow messaline, carried a bouquet of yellow roses which blended beautifully with her costume. The bridesmaid was equally attractive in a gown of white voile over pink silk with a bouquet of pink roses.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served under the trees. Mr. O. M. Brunsvold acted as toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were the recipients of many beautiful gifts which will adorn their home and remind them of their many friends.

The bride is a young lady of very estimable qualities, grown to womanhood in this community, and is well known throughout the county where she has been a teacher for the past few years.

Mr. Axel Johnson is a resident of Minneapolis where he has been engaged as a contractor. He is a young man of good habits and a very pleasing personality.

The newlyweds left the same evening for Minneapolis where they will make their future home.

The Enterprise joins with their many friends in wishing them many years of happy married life.