

MILLS-SHEPHERD

A wedding of interest to their many friends was that of Miss Veda Bell Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Shepherd, to Mr. George W. Mills, at the home of the bride's parents near Cooperstown, at high noon, on Wednesday, March 6. The Rev. Edwards read the service which was witnessed by the relatives of the bride and groom.

Miss Mabel Mills, sister of the groom, played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the parties descended the stairs and took their place in the living room where the vows were spoken.

The living room was beautifully decorated in green the white, the color scheme being carried out by roses and ferns. The dining room was in pink and white, and carnations decorated the table where a sumptuous course dinner was served.

The bride was gowned in sheer white organdy ornamented with Baby Irish lace and insertion and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Her traveling suit was of brown with hat to match. The groom was dressed in conventional black.

After the usual congratulations and partaking of a delicious dinner prepared for the guests, Mr. Mills and his bride drove to Finley where they boarded the Great Northern on a three weeks' trip to the Twin Cities, Des Moines and parts in Iowa where was the bride's early home.

They will be at home to their friends after May 1st, at Hannaford, N. Dak.

Among the beautiful presents was a chest of silver consisting of fifty pieces.

This paper joins the many friends of the bride and groom in wishing them a long, pleasant and prosperous life.
