

MILTON E. MILLS WEDS

A Pretty Home Wedding Solemnized New Year's Day at Tuscola, Ill.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Parrish, five miles southeast of Tuscola, Ill., on January 1st, 1914, the contracting couple being Hannah Maude Parrish and Milton E. Mills of Hannaford, N. Dak.

The double ring ceremony was used and performed under a large arch of evergreens and ferns by Rev. Hoel. The bride wore a dress of tanned serge and carried a pretty bouquet of bride's roses. After the guests had tendered congratulations and good wishes, a bountiful wedding breakfast was served. The presents bestowed on the young couple were costly in the extreme.

The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Richman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maris, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Richman, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Parrish and family, Mr. Ward Maris, Miss Joey Comer, Miss Agnes Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills will visit until Monday amongst the relatives when they will depart at 11:50 over the Illinois Central R. R. for Hannaford, N. Dak., their future home, where Mr. Mills owns a four hundred acre farm.—Tuscola Review.

The numerous friends of Mr. Mills in Hannaford and vicinity extend to the newly-weds best wishes for a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.
