

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Mills arrived here Tuesday from Tuscola, Ill., where they were married on New Year's Day. Milton was tossed in a blanket and otherwise roughly handled, but as it is a custom they have down there to treat bridegrooms in that manner, he took it all good-naturedly. Milton made quite an extended stay in Illinois but was glad to get back as he likes the North Dakota brand of weather better than the Illinois kind.