

On Thanksgiving Day at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stee, an old pioneer family, occurred the marriage of Mae Stee to John Sad, Rev. P. A. Thoreson performing the ceremony. The bride wore cream colored serge trimmed with brocaded satin and white fur and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. A large number of the relatives of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony and afterwards partook of the sumptuous wedding dinner. At this function Reuben Stee, a brother of the bride, acted as toastmaster and the groom and Rev. Thoreson were called on for speeches. Mr. Sad graduated last spring from the law department of the University of North Dakota and will engage in the practice of his profession, making his home for the present with his parents on the farm near Dazey. The young couple took the train from Hannaford the same evening on a wedding trip to Minneapolis.

---