

Courier: The many friends of David Bartlett will regret to learn that he is confined to his bed by sickness. On Tuesday about dinner time he suffered a stroke of paralysis just as he arrived for dinner. At this writing he is resting easier and we are informed that he is improving. Mr. Bartlett has a large circle of friends who regret his sickness and sincerely hope for a speedy recovery.