

Paul Fritsvold spent three days at Bismarck last week, representing the Hannaford fire department at the Firemen's state convention. A large representation of firemen from all over the state was present and an instructive and interesting meeting was held.