

Edgar Haaland's barn burned down last Sunday evening, the fire originating from the exploding of a lantern. All the stock and harnesses were saved, but the practically new barn, pump house, gasolene engine and cream separator were destroyed. Mr. Haaland will rebuild immediate-