

A little girl at Ludvig Hareland's place had her arm caught in a clothes wringer last Friday, and the flesh was badly torn and mangled. Dr. R. D. Benson was at once called and dressed the wound.