

Albert Hassen and Albert Nelson had a brisk little runaway while coming home from the fire at Walum Friday night. One of the wheels came off their rig and they were both spilled out and considerably bruised up but neither were hurt seriously. A lap robe, belonging to William Peterson of Walum, was lost.