

Andrew Larson, who formerly rented Claus Jackson's farm west of town, came down from Esmond, N. D., Saturday on a business trip. Mr. Larson was very unfortunate this year in having his crop badly damaged by rust, there being 200 acres of his fields which were not even worth cutting. We hope he meets with better crop conditions next year.