

Sutton Reporter: Peter Lyle was mixed up in a runaway accident last Friday, and was considerably bruised and shaken up. He was driving a single horse hitched to a open buggy and had started from the depot uptown when the horse became frightened at a freight train. It made a quick turn in front of hotel, which sent the rig spinning over and over. Mr. Lyle was thrown to the ground, and the horse also was thrown by the overturning of the rig.