

Hermund Nissestad, a farm laborer who has been making his home near Cooperstown, was adjudged insane last week and taken to James-town. He will probably be sent back to his home in Norway, because he is not a citizen of the United States.