

Edgar Olson, the Hannaford boy who graduated from the Agricultural College at Fargo this spring, left on Saturday to begin work under Cooper of The North Dakota Better Farming Association. This line of work offers great opportunities for advancement and Mr. Olson is to be congratulated upon securing such a position.