

While playing with the other children last week in the livery barn, Raymond, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richardson was severely kicked in the head by a mule. The little fellow was at once given medical treatment and is now getting along nicely.