

Ernest T. Smith, who was for two years principal of the Hannaford schools, has been attending Upper Iowa University the past winter and graduated from that institution last week.