

Binford Times: Chas. Troutden met with an accident Monday that will lay him up for some time. He was engaged with some others in doing some road work with a grader in Kingsley township. The ditch along a part of the road being too steep, overturned the grader, pinning Mr. Troutden beneath it. He was quite badly injured in the back and hips, but fortunately no bones were broken. The escape was a narrow one.