

Justin Walum, Martin Walum's son, met with a serious misfortune last Friday night while cranking an auto belonging to Chas. Schneider of Dazey. They were on the way to Hannaford and Justin was endeavoring to start the motor when the crank kicked back with the result that his arm was broken just above the wrist. Dr. Glasscock set the broken bones and the injury will soon be healed. Accidents of this nature are of frequent occurrence.