

Mrs. Edwin Wold, who recently lost her husband in an accident, was presented with a great deal of money and much clothing, at a recent meeting of the Ladies Aid of the congregation. Several persons were present from Cooperstown and Jessie. John Skei handed her a list of $312.50 cash money and $421.77 cancelled debts, collected in Cooperstown.