

HOSEA WRITES AGAIN

Union City, Pa., April 9, 1914

Mr. Editor:

I thought I would let the Hannaford folks know that it is snowing the most peculiar thing that has happened for a long time in Union City. There was a man 68 years old that lost his wife about a year ago. He is worth about $50000 and he married a handsome girl 18 years old. I do think he is the homliest man there is between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans and she smiles on him just the same as though he was a nice looking man in his teens. It strikes me very forcibly that no matter how old or how homely a man is he will be loved and respected if he has only got the doe.

I expect to be back soon but I dread to start for there are a lot of folks that are interested in my welfare, so hoping this will find all the Hannaford folks well, I will close.

Hosea Woodward.

B. S. There was triplets born down on Waterfront Street, two girls and a boy last Tuesday. The mother, father and children are getting along nicely.
