

HOSEA WOODWARD WRITES

The Enterprise is in receipt of the following letter from Hosea Woodward, now on a visit to Union City, Pa., which we publish without any alteration:

"Well, I got to my journeys end after three days ride day & knight on the 17 of Jan. There has been lots of changes where there used to be a Wilderness it is all cleared and the town is as large agin as it was when i left 13 years ago i was Pleas-ed to find all my sisters in good health But the Older ones commence to get a little Feeble & they were over joyed to see me they acted as though i was the Prodigal Son so my Brothernlaw is a farmer and he Kill-ed the fatted calf and we had a veel Pot Pie there is something verry Romantic about this visit Just about 30 years ago i used to have a verry nice Irish girl By the name of Cath-erina Because hur hair was Red the Neighbours called hur Rusty Cate Sne is an old made now But she has got the verry same affectionate Smile on hur Deer Freckeled face that she had 35 years ago i next summer expect to keep house in one Part of W H Richardsons House So Hoping this letter will find all the young ladies & Old ladies & Old Maids well is my Best wish From Hosea Wood-ward, Union City, Pa. 12 Sherman St."
