

Wedding Bells.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Whipple, Dec. 2nd, 1903, Millie Gainsforth and Thomas Nesbitt were married, Rev. J. H. Armstrong, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. The beautiful Episcopal ring ceremony was used.

The bride was gowned in white mousseline de soie, the bridal veil being caught with a half wreath of white flowers. She carried bride roses.

Miss Melinda Gainsforth, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was pink crepe de chine trimmed with heavy cream lace. She carried pink roses.

Little Myrtle Whipple, gowned in fluffy white, was a dainty and charming ringbearer, carrying the ring on a white satin heart-shaped cushion.

Mr. Frank Smith very ably assisted Mr. Nesbitt as best man.

Mrs. A. A. J. Lang played the wedding march.

The rooms were prettily decorated with roses, carnations and ropes of groundpine, and white ribbons were fastened in the center of the ceiling from which the wedding bell of lilies of the valley was suspended, under which the bridal party stood.

They were the recipients of some very handsome presents of silver, china and cut-glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt left on their wedding journey on the evening train. They go to Winnepeg and thence to Ottawa, Can., the former home of both bride and groom, where they expect to be in time to eat Christmas dinner with parents and friends.

They departed from Sanborn loaded with rice, white ribbons, old shoes, cheers and the best wishes of their many friends.
