

---

During the storm Tuesday afternoon lightning struck Grant Allen's residence just across the street north from the depot, formerly known as the lone tree restaurant. No one was hurt and but little damage was done to the house, but a number of telephones on the local exchange were put out of business.