

---

During the storm Monday evening lightning struck the telephone wires near Geo. Carl's and followed them into the house, making a grand display of fireworks but doing no damage to the house. Another bolt set fire to a shock of barley in the field of J. H. Black just northwest of town.

---