

---

Fred Tabbert lost about twenty-five tons of hay and Frank Hauser a barn by a prairie fire this week. The fire had been set some days previous, and was supposed out, when a strong wind fanned it into a blaze and blew it onto Mr. Tabbert's farm while he was away from home.

---